ABOUT

Abstract cityscape in Le Touquet, Northern France, painted in vibrant orange and blue hues. Titled on verso.

Alistair Grant (1925-1997) was a British artist and Professor at the Royal College of Art. Known for his mixed media printmaking and abstract painting, Grant’s work is featured in prominent collections like the Victoria & Albert Museum. Our exhibition showcases his diverse range of screenprints, lithographs, oils, watercolours, gouache, and mixed media pieces, reflecting his versatility and innovation. Visit Cabinet of Curiosity to immerse yourself in the world of Mid-Century abstract art.
