ABOUT

Abstract monochrome (blue) watercolour painting on paper.

Alistair Grant (1925-1997) was a British artist and Professor at the Royal College of Art. Known for his mixed media printmaking and abstract painting, Grant's work is featured in prominent collections like the Victoria & Albert Museum. Our exhibition showcases his diverse range of screenprints, lithographs, oils, watercolours, gouache, and mixed media pieces, reflecting his versatility and innovation. Visit Cabinet of Curiosity to immerse yourself in the world of Mid-Century abstract art.
