ABOUT

Fine Trompe l'Oeil (artistic technique, realistic optical illusion of three-dimensional space and objects on a two-dimensional surface) painting, in grisaille black and white hues, created after a plaster bas-relief by Bertel Thorvaldsen (1770-1844). Deemed as "Satyr Dancing with a Bacchante" the composition draws inspiration from Greek mythology, depicting characters of the abandoned enthourage of the year of wine, Bacchus.
