ABOUT

Contemporary painting in oil and resin perfectly flatted on canvas. It depicts a large cloud above a silhouette of ground with grass, in almost monochromatic blue hues, with visible dynamic brush strokes. The official title given by the artist is “Cloud Painting I”. Signed by the artist and dated 07 (July) 2012. Newly framed.

Talar Aghbashian (b.1981), a Beirut-born artist based in London, creates gestural paintings inspired by diverse environments. Her work, exhibited internationally since 1998, captures the contrast between organic elements and geometric shapes, drawing from landscapes and scientific expeditions to explore the complexities of our time and the overlapping narratives that shape our understanding of history.
