ABOUT

A drawing of a man figure holding a rifle, created in sanguine, black chalk, and pastel on tinted paper. Signed "L.Endres" lower right. Newly mounted in one wooden frame under glass.

Louis John Endres (1896-1989) was an American-born painter who spent over three decades living and working in Morocco. Based in Rabat from the early 1930s, he became known for his sensitive portrayals of everyday life - capturing the rhythms of Moroccan markets, interiors, and quiet portraits with lyrical precision.
