ABOUT

An English candle holder in the Art Nouveau style. The design is inspired by the shape of morning glory flower, featuring six bud-shaped sconces on a base of coiled stems and leaves. Marked "C&F EPNS 4349 Nr 473004" on the base.

Cropp & Farr was a London-based silversmith firm active from the late 19th century into the mid-20th century. Founded in 1901 and listed at Hatton Garden, the firm produced a wide range of electroplated silverware, including table pieces, trophies, and domestic objects. Their mark "C&F EPNS" (Electro Plated Nickel Silver) appears frequently on finely crafted plated items, often in popular styles of the time such as Edwardian Neo-Rococo, Art Nouveau, and later Art Deco.
