ABOUT

Chaise voyageuse chair from the third quarter of the 18th century, featuring a curved padded arm-rest and seat upholstered in close-nailed green leather. The cartouche-shaped back sits within a finely channelled frame, centred by a floral spray and raised on cabriole legs carved with flowerhead motifs. The frame shows traces of earlier paint layers and has been later redecorated.

Two pieces are available, the price is listed per single chair.
