ABOUT

Oil on canvas by Afshin Pirhashemi. A monochrome portrait of a woman, created in striking mix of hyperrealism and abstraction. Signed "Afshin Pirhashemi" at the lower center.

Afshin Pirhashemi (b. 1974) is an Iranian painter recognized for his hyperrealist works exploring identity and social tension. Educated at the Rome Academy of Fine Arts, he developed a distinctive figurative language defined by sharp contrasts, cinematic composition, and psychological focus. His portraits, often depicting women, are among the most prominent in contemporary Iranian art.
