ABOUT

Wool tapestry after Bernard Buffet titled "La Chouette" - created in long-stitch wool on canvas after the artist's composition, a format issued by DMC. Signed and dated Bernard Buffet 69 at the upper edge. Preserved in great condition, framed.

Bernard Buffet (1928-1999) was a French painter, printmaker, and designer associated with postwar Expressionism. Educated at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris, Buffet gained early acclaim for his stark, angular figures and somber tonal palette. Over a prolific career, he created paintings, lithographs, and tapestries that combine linear precision with emotional austerity, securing his position among the leading French artists of the mid-20th century.
