ABOUT

Oil on canvas painting by Timur Iskhakov titled The Tournament. Depicting two equestrian figures composed of geometric forms in soft blue, green, and beige tones, with layered impasto and textured brushwork. Signed with monogram and dated '94 lower right, further signed, titled, and dated on the verso. Preserved in great condition, framed.

Timur Iskhakov (b. 1968) is a Russian painter associated with the post-Soviet generation of figurative abstractionists. Educated at the Kazan Art School and the Moscow State Academic Institute of Arts, he developed a distinctive language of geometric composition and muted palette. His works often revisit mythic, historical, and symbolic subjects, combining monumental form with refined surface texture.
