ABOUT

"Spring Flowers" is an oil on panel still life by Clifford Cundy depicting a bouquet of white, red, and yellow flowers arranged in a dark vase. The composition is rendered with visible brushwork and a bright palette against a textured ground. Newly framed.

Clifford Cundy (1926–1992) was a British painter working primarily in still life, floral subjects, and landscape. He studied at Leicester College of Art and later at the Royal College of Art, London. Cundy exhibited widely in Britain from the 1950s onwards, including regular participation in the Royal Academy Summer Exhibition.
