ABOUT

George II style wingback settee in the manner of Charles Tozer*. The upholstered frame has a shaped wing back, outscrolled arms, and needlepoint upholstery with floral and figural decoration on a pale ground. Raised on carved cabriole legs with ball and claw feet.

*Charles Tozer is associated with high-quality London furniture in the early Georgian and Queen Anne revival taste, particularly walnut seating and cabinet pieces. This settee is described as in the manner of Charles Tozer, indicating a stylistic relationship rather than a confirmed maker attribution.
