ABOUT

Two large contemporary still-life oil paintings on antique (19th Century) linen, deemed as "Still Life with Ears of Corn" and "Still Life with Peaches." Both compositions terminate in borders resembling ornamental metal baskets, with scrolling handles and classical relief decoration. Each painting is signed "B. Eman" (lower right, on the recto) and one signed "Brenda Eman" along with the date "3 (5? text unclear) / 2000" on the verso. Attributed to Brenda Eman, a Paris-based designer-decorator.

Preserved in great condition and newly framed in solid wood.

These paintings may be purchased separately or as a pair. The price is listed per single piece.
