ABOUT

Minimalist low centre table from "Cadeau" series by Jean Arriau. Rare white alabaster block of impressive size is incased in gilt metal frame, supported by slim panel of the same material. Great vintage condition with minor wear on the surface, occasional scratches on alabaster. Overall consistent with age and use, new felt supports are added to the metal base.

Jean Arriau (b. 1964) is a French multidisciplinary artist, who works in fields of photography, sculpture, and furniture design. Based in Normadndy, he showcased his works internationally, including solo exhibitions in the United States, Belgium, Germany, and England.
