ABOUT

Oil on canvas painting, made in an abstract, whimsical manner, by a Greek artist Thanos Tsingos. Signed on the back: “Thingos”.

Greek artist Thanos Tsingos (1914–1965) – was an architect and one of the pioneer painters in the abstract expressionism of his time. He produced close to two thousand paintings. Most of them are presented in private and public collections scattered throughout Paris, London, and Athens. In the middle 1950s, he started painting "flowers" which became the most distinctive motif of his work.
