ABOUT

A tall glass vase in Art Deco style by Czech designer Karl Palda. The vase features a stepped trapezoid shape when viewed from the side, with a square base and rim. It is adorned with enamel black stripes and abstract geometric motifs on two sides. These patterns are refracting and reflecting through the thick glass, creating a beautiful visual effect.

Karl Palda was a renowned Czech designer associated with the Art Deco movement. He is known for his stylish glassware and decorative objects featuring vibrant colors and geometric patterns. His work embodies the elegance and innovation of Art Deco design.
