ABOUT

Intricate illustration of a horse standing in profile. The horse has a long, thick black mane, while the coat is also predominantly brown, with some white streaks on the head and forelegs. The horse is wearing a bridle with metal bits.

Newly framed under museum glass.

Jaggu Prasad, (b. 1963), is a prominent illustrator from Rajastan, India. Throughout the 1980s and 1990s, Prasad's artistic endeavors led to numerous commissions from public, private, and corporate entities for botanical art and illustrations.
