ABOUT

Set of six detailed illustrations of birds by Indian artist Jaggu Prasad. Each frame depicts avian studies of birds (males and females), that usually referred as Paradise Birds. They found mainly in the tropical rainforests of New Guinea and nearby islands. Among them: Blue Bird of Paradise (Paradisaea rudolphi), Magnificent Bird of Paradise (Diphyllodes magnificus), Wilson's Bird of Paradise (Diphyllodes respublica), and others. The environmental background is also finely detailed with tropical flora.

Newly framed under museum glass.

Jaggu Prasad (b.1963), a renowned artist from Rajasthan, India, is celebrated for his expertise in botanical and animalistic paintings. His exceptional talent and dedication to his craft have earned him recognition and acclaim in the art world.
