ABOUT

Tall iron floor lamp in Industrial style on a crescent base with four claw feet. The large frosted glass globe lamp shade is surmounted into orbital case, elevated on a foliage decorated stem. The attached plate states: "Laureau 20. Rue Royale. Paris"

As per the "Catalogue General of the Universal Exposition of 1867 in Paris," Maison Motheaulau-Laureau was a locksmithing and safe manufacturing business located in Paris at 20, rue Royale, with a factory on avenue de Lowendall. Operated by the Laureau Brothers, nephews, and successors, the establishment specialized in fine and precision locksmithing.
