ABOUT

Partial dinner set by Royal Worcester, adorned with blue-on-white floral motifs on the rims (pattern number 115187) and gilt figural elements (elephants side handles and birds feet lid handles).

The set includes 81 piece of various shapes and sizes:

- 20 round dinner plates
- 26 round salad plates
- 14 round shallow plates
- 2 large oval platters with a foliate emboss
- 3 large oval serving platters in various sizes
- 1 large oval shallow bowl
- 1 medium size curved oval platter
- 1 round platter/stand
- 5 small curved oval side platters
- 8 covered tureens of various sizes (one extra large, one large, three medium, and three small)

All pieces in the set are marked with Royal Worcester Vitreous marks. Vitreous china refers to an enamel coating applied to ceramics, especially porcelain, after firing, and can also describe the final product itself. This coating enhances the durability of porcelain, making it tougher and more resilient.

In great antique condition, with visible wear on gilt in some pieces.
